PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO STAY DEFENDANTS'
MOTION TO DISMISS

Comes now Plaintiff, by and through counsel, and respectfully request that this Honorable Court enter an order staying consideration of Defendants American International Group, Inc. ("AIG") and American General Corporation's ("AGC") Motion to Dismiss, pending a decision on Plaintiff's Motion to Remand. In support of which Plaintiff would show the following:

On or about August 11, 2005, Plaintiff filed this action in the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Tennessee. On or about September 9, 2005, Defendants filed a Notice of Removal based on fraudulent joinder. Consequently, the Removal is improperly based on diversity of citizenship. On or about September 16, 2005, Defendants AIG and AGC filed a Motion to Dismiss contending this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over these Defendants. On or about October 11, 2005, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Remand and Brief in Support of Motion to Remand. In the interest of justice, the Plaintiff's motion for a stay on further proceedings pending the outcome of Plaintiff's Motion to Remand is due to be granted given that the Court would not have subject matter jurisdiction over these matters if the Plaintiff's Motion to Remand is granted.

In Godsey v. Miller, 9 Fed.Appx. 380, 384 (6th Cir. 2001), stated that "it is a well settled principle that 'the district court must be certain that federal subject matter jurisdiction is proper before entertaining a motion by the defendant under Federal Rule 12 to dismiss the plaintiff's complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.'" (citing 14C CHARLES ALAN WRIGHT, ET AL., FEDERAL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE § 3739, at 423 (3d ed. 1998)). In it's decision, the Godsey court went on to add that, "the preferred method is to determine whether the action has been properly removed and the court has jurisdiction before disposing of other pending motions." Id. at 384-385. See also Austin v. American General Finance, 900 F.Supp. 396, 398 (M.D. Ala. 1995)(stating 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c) states that "[i]f at any time before final judgment it appears that the district court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, the case shall be remanded." (emphasis added). Based on the word "shall" in § 1447(c), the Court should first address Plaintiff's motion to remand and if the Court has subject matter jurisdiction then the motion to dismiss should be considered). Plaintiff has challenged, on solid grounds, the Defendants' removal of this action from the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Tennessee, to this Court, in the Plaintiff's Brief in Support of Remand. Granting a stay on this issue will not prejudice either party.

If Plaintiff's Motion to Remand is granted, this Court would not ever have had subject matter jurisdiction over the matters currently before it. If the Court were to entertain any motions filed by Defendants, and then found that it did not have jurisdiction, and properly granted Plaintiff's Motion to Remand, all of the rulings by this Court would be null and void. Therefore, in the interest of judicial economy, Plaintiff asks this Court to issue a stay on any further proceeding concerning the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss pending the outcome of the Plaintiff's Motion to Remand.

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's Motion for a Stay is due to be granted.
